

Kamalini - an abundance of lotus flowers - symbolizing how educating women makes the whole family and community thrive.

Virtual view of the future Kamalini Campus in Gurgaon. Its construction will start in October 2012.

Links to jobs made possible by Kamalini

On Friday, 27th July, eleven Kamalini students appeared for interviews at the Pullman Hotel in Gurgaon, and four landed entry into the hotel's training programme! These interviews followed a special tour for Kamalini students – the first time the girls had crossed the threshold of a big hotel.

Photo gallery

"I never thought I could get an opportunity to work at a 'big hotel'. I am glad to have a steady income"

Mary Alphonsa, one of the Kamalini students who entered the Pullman Training Programme

You can help by your tax-deductible contribution for the construction of the future Kamalini Campus!

New campus building plan sanctioned

On Thursday, 26th July the Haryana Urban Development Authority sanctioned the plan for the new Kamalini campus building for vocational training in Gurgaon which will provide job related training for more than 2,800 under-privileged women per year. Another hurdle crossed!

Read more

Making pizza with the pro

Ritu Dalmia is fulfilling her pledge to "train the trainers" at Kamalini. On Wednesday July 25th, in the second session she has led for them, she shared best practices for making Pizza Marguerita and ravioli.

Photo gallery

A bus-load of students for the public exam

On Tuesday, July 24th, Kamalini hired a bus to take 60 girls and ladies to the Industrial Training Institute for the Delhi government certification of their studies in Cutting and Tailoring and Indian Cuisine. This is the 4th Kamalini batch under the Delhi technical training scheme, and so far all who gave the complete examination have passed to date.

At the Diva Restaurant...

Ernst & Young sessions on Life Skills and Links to the Workplace

How to make budgets and keep accounts, how to prepare for their chosen career, how to make parents realize about the importance of educating girls, etc. were some of the practical topics tackled in a two-part interactive session led by 21 volunteers from Ernst & Young at the Kishangarh pilot centre of Kamalini on July 27th and July 28th.

Photo gallery

"It was a great learning experience. The volunteers guided us in a friendly manner and gave us individual attention"

Thank you, Main Tendue!

Thanks to this French Charity, five computer systems have been donated to Kamalini for the computer classes.

Run for Kamalini in the Airtel Marathon

Start your endurance training and gathering pledges! Run for Kamalini in the 21K Half Marathon or the 6K Great Delhi Run! Join us! Contact us at info@kamalini.org

We invite you to HELP US on the building of the new Kamalini Campus in Gurgaon.

Please contact us at info@kamalini.org